Court of Appeal to Hold ‘Appellate Court Experience’ Education Program

Los Angeles—The Court of Appeal, Second Appellate District, Division One, will host its Appellate Court Experience (ACE) educational outreach program at 9:30 a.m. on Monday, October 23. The two participating high schools are Burbank High School and Los Angeles High School.

The program will be held in the Court of Appeal Courtroom in the Ronald Reagan State Building, 300 South Spring Street, Los Angeles.

Launched in 2005, ACE is co-sponsored by the Constitution Rights Foundation (CRF), the Los Angeles County Bar Association’s Appellate Courts Committee (ACC), the California Academy of Appellate Lawyers (CAAL), and the Second Appellate District.

The program includes a classroom curriculum administered by appellate attorneys from the ACC and the CAAL featuring a pending appeal, followed by a visit to the Court of Appeal to observe oral arguments in the case. After oral argument, the students have an opportunity to interact with the justices and attorneys.

To date, the program has served more than 260 students from 8 high schools: Mira Costa High School, Environmental Charter, Redondo Beach High School, North Hollywood High School, LA Center for Enriched Studies, King Drew Medical Magnet, Venice High School, and Woodrow Wilson High School.
